Thought for the fortnight:

Diwali – 04.11.24

On Monday 4th November we will be celebrating the festival of Diwali. The children will take part in a range of activities to learn about the ways in which the festival is celebrated around the world.

If you are able to offer any support or would be willing to come in and talk to the children about the festival, please let us know.

As this is a celebration, we ask that the children come to school and Nursery wearing bright, colourful clothes or traditional clothing.

Harvest Donations

I would like to thank all our families for their generous Harvest donations. We were once again overwhelmed by the generosity of our community. All donations have been collected by the Good Shepherd Ministry and will be distributed to support those in need in the Wolverhampton area.

In addition, a huge well done to the children, especially Year 1, for a wonderful Harvest Festival. The children all demonstrated our Christ Church values and it was a joy to be able to celebrate together in church as a community. Thank you to all those who attended and supported with walking. We hope you enjoyed the service.
